

I have XM because where I live you can not get anything on regular radio...nothing worth listening to let alone broadcasting. You can not forbid me from having good music and news when I want it. I pay for this service. I pay taxes to have the privelege of free listening in my home and in my car.